LIQUORS, CIGARS.

SUMMER EVENING REVERIES.

It was one pleasant Summer eve,
I walked beside the rocky shore
Which girls so proud our noble lake,
And listened to the billows roar.

Nor was this all —upon a bench,
Two maidens sat in childish glee,
And mingled voices grandly sweet,
With Michigan's dull melody.

I crept me nearer to the spot,
'Twas wrong, I truthfully declare,
Yet I would know and listen well
To words which came from lips so fair.

Oh, Mary Jane," the eldest said,
"Since smoke the Indians made divine,
"'Tis strange to me so many men
To poor cigars their tastes incline."

I felt this truth—I knew it well—
There's truth in legendary lore;
I left the spot and hastened down,
Nor halted till in ELIOT'S store.

THE LAND GRANT.
Good News from Madison.

We received the following despatch yesterday about dark:

To the Sentinel:—

Senate in committee, by vote of 14 to 10, adopted Hadley's substitute for Chapter 2 of railroad bill. C. C. S.

This substitute makes over the grant to the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. for the North Western road. By our evening telegraph report, it will be seen that the bill had been reported back to the Senate, and the discussion was going on at a late hour.

An Earnest Appeal for Help to the Sufferers in Kansas.

We lose no time in laying before our readers the letter of Mr. PHELPS, from Lawrence, Kansas. Its appeal for food and other material aid must be answered. The brave men who guard the fort at Lawrence, and who are defending the the lives of their wives and children, must not be allowed to starve. People of Wisconsin! the appeal is to you. Open your hearts at once! Send what you can at once to T. B. MASON, Treasurer of the Kansas Aid Society here, or send it somewhere, so that it may be speedily on the way to its destination. Stand by the little band of Freemen in Kansas! It is your rights that they defend.

NOT DEAD—THE SHOOTING AFFAIR NEAR BERLIN.—We learn by a gentleman from Berlin, Marquette Co., that Mr. Dorley, who was shot last yesterday week in his field, by a man named Waterman, is not dead; but is in a fair way of recovery. The man Waterman was arrested the next morning in the neighborhood. The particulars that led to this shooting affray are so differently detailed that we shall wait for something more reliable than we now have before giving them publicity.

Hear the Southern Democracy on Slavery.

The Richmond Enquirer, a leading Buchanan paper in Virginia, denounces thus eloquently on the doctrine avowed by the Buchanan Democratic party. It is the same that is now using the bullets and bayonets of the nation to exterminate the Free State men of Kansas. Read, Read:—

"Make the laboring man the slave of one man, instead of the slave of society, and he would be far better off.

"Two hundred years of labor have made laborers a pauper banditti. Free society has failed, and that which is not free must be substituted.

"Free society is a monstrous abortion, and slavery the healthy, beautiful and natural being which they are trying unconsciously to adopt. * * * The slaves are governed far better than the free laborers of the North are governed. Our negroes are not only better off as to physical comfort than free laborers, but their moral condition is better.

"We do not adopt the theory that Ham was the ancestor of the negro race. The Jewish slaves were not negroes, and to confine the jurisdiction of Slavery to that race would be to weaken its scriptural authority, and to lose the whole weight of profane authority, for we read of no negro slavery in ancient time. Slavery black or white is necessary.

"Nature has made the weak in mind or body slaves. * * The wise and virtuous, the brave, the strong in mind or body, are born to command. * * "Men are not entitled to equal rights. It would be far nearer the truth to say that some were born with saddles on their backs, and others booted and spurred to ride them—and the riding does them good. They need the reins, the bit and the spur. * * Life and liberty are not inalienable. * * The Declaration of Independence is exuberantly false and fallacious."

Do the laboring men of the North want anything more to exhibit them the principles of the Slave Oligarchy, that now boasts that IT WILL SUBDUE FREEDOM?

THE CONVENTION YESTERDAY
GATHERING OF THE CLANS!
OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!!
12,000 to 15,000 FREEMEN ON HAND!
SPEECHES BY CASSIUS M. CLAY AND OTHERS!
Grand Torch Light Procession!

A glorious day was yesterday, and a glorious demonstration was that witnessed for the cause of Freedom and Humanity. The elements contributed their favorable aid. From a deep, blue and unclouded sky, the warm sun shed its rays of light, and the air was soft and mild. The country was represented by thousands upon thousands of the hardy sons of toil, and the enthusiasm that animated the serried ranks bespoke a spirit and a determination that will sweep away all paltry opposition. Our citizens have a right to be proud of yesterday's gathering. It marks an era in the history of our State, and tells well of the humanity of her sons. All honor, then, to the hardy, liberty-loving "Badgers." The great heart of Wisconsin vibrates with sympathy for the cause of Constitutional Liberty. The people are awake—in terrible earnest—and yesterday's demonstration makes us confident in predicting a majority for Fremont in November, that will place Wisconsin by the side of Maine, and bury hunkerism and Northern Buchaniers in the everlasting oblivion.

THE FIRST MOVEMENT.

About 10 o'clock A. M. the Young Men's Fremont Club formed into ranks at the Rocky Mountain Camp, marched down to the Milwaukee and Watertown Railroad Depot. A band discoursed stirring music, and the Marshal of the day, Dr. WOLCOTT, with the assistance of Marshals NOYES and CANDEE, FILLMORE and WATKINS, on splendid horses, led the procession. The Watertown cars soon arrived, loaded down with delegates, and soon after the Milwaukee and Mississippi train arrived, bringing over 600 passengers. The ranks were then formed again, and the procession marched back to the Camp House, where they halted to wait until the Wauwatosa delegation appeared.

J. R. BRIGHAM, of the Executive Committee, announced the order of the day, and then introduced CHAMPION VAUGHAN to the assemblage. Mr. VAUGHAN spoke of the gratification he felt in witnessing such a large gathering. "The Almighty," said the speaker, "seems to smile upon us, and this great demonstration is a golden augury of our success in November. The sun of to-day is as bright as that which shone upon the heights of Austerlitz, and even," said Mr. VAUGHAN, "as Napoleon scattered and routed the allied Austrians and Russians, do I believe that we, under the command of the gallant FREMONT, will succeed in routing the combined forces of Slavery and Doughfaceism." Mr. VAUGHAN made a few other remarks, which were well received, and was followed by

WM. H. LORD.

Mr. LORD extended a cordial welcome to those who had come in from their farms to lay their offer of patriotism upon the altar of our common country, and continued speaking in a forcible and eloquent style until appeared upon Spring street hill the

WAUWATOSA DELEGATION,

Consisting of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY WAGONS, which could not have contained less than 700 men and women. All the wagons and horses, which were decked with shrubbery, with flags and banners, presented a novel and beautiful appearance. Their arrival at the Camp House was the signal for a wild outburst of enthusiasm which seemed to rend the very heavens.

After this had subsided, the procession formed, and proceeded to the Market House, where the GERMAN FREMONT CLUB were in waiting. A most beautiful silk flag was presented to the Club by Mrs. REISS, (on behalf of the German ladies of Milwaukee,) who accompanied the gift with a neat and well-delivered address. The banner bears upon one side a well-executed form of Liberty, and upon the other is inscribed—"Equal rights of all"—"Free Men, Free Labor and Free Speech." It was accepted by the Club through P. Engelmann, in a few appropriate and stirring remarks. Among other devices carried by the Club, we noticed "Fremont and Free Labor"—"Liberty, Equality and Brotherhood"—"Down with the Know Nothings"—&c., &c. Quite a number of German ladies formed in the procession, which now proceeded to the La Crosse Depot, where a delegation of over 600, marshalled by Gen. Blake—a true patriot and worthy man—were received into the growing ranks, now numbering over 5,000 persons.

A banner which the delegation carried elicited infinite shouts and laughter. It represented a rickety platform, supported by darkies.

This affair was gotten up by a decided genius, whoever he is, and attracted great attention throughout the day. Beaver Dam, Fox Lake, Horicon, other towns in Dodge County, turned out large delegations. The Clubs from Washington County, with their beautiful banner, were welcomed heartily.

While waiting for the La Crosse and Milwaukee train, the 2d and 6th Ward Club was presented with a beautiful banner, on behalf of the ladies of those wards, by Miss Anne Van Dyke. J. A. Phelps, President of the Club, and S. M. Booth, replied in receiving the gift. F. M. LANE is the painter and designer of this handsome banner, and his work is always good.

THE KANSAS DINNER.

From the time "the bell rung," at about 1 P. M., till 5 P. M., the four long tables in the Camp House, provided with good things by the ladies, were well patronized, and the sum realized by the patriotic ladies must be a handsome one.

POLE RAISED.

During the morning a pole, 125 feet high, of tamarack, was raised at the Camp House, successfully, and the flag of the free floated from its top.

Returning from the northward, the procession, numbering several thousand people, moved down West Water Street to the 5th ward. Passing the Eagle Foundry of TURTON & SESCOMB, the bell saluted them with its clang. Flags were flying from the Foundries in the Fifth Ward.—Returning up East Water Street, the procession cheered the Fremont offices as they passed, giving us several hearty rounds for our share.—Moving to the Court House Square, the Convention was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

SECRETARIES.

J. R. BRIGHAM,
WINFIELD SMITH,
V. TICHENOR.

Mr. HOLTON introduced to the audience, now numbering some 6 or 7,000 people, Hon. JOHN ALLISON, of Pennsylvania, one of the tried and true members of the present Congress, who is temporarily on a visit to our State. He has a fine voice, and is ready with words and arguments in the good cause, and, speaking things of which he knew the truth, he made one of the most convincing and effective speeches of the campaign. He was listened to attentively, and cheered loudly and heartily when he concluded, and three times three given for old Pennsylvania.

Just before he concluded, the music of one of the bands announced the arrival of the delegation by the 2 P. M. train from the South, and Cassius M. Clay arrived and was escorted to the Speaker's stand. Racine, Kenosha, and several towns in those two counties, and in Walworth, brought up delegations by hundreds, with their banners flying, and came immediately on to the ground.

CASSIUS M. CLAY, of Kentucky.

In opening, Mr. Clay spoke of the oppressive spirit which still existed in this country. The King is still here, said he—the same spirit and principles which animated our forefathers in their heroic revolutionary struggle should inspire us, at the present day, to take up the cause of Freedom and war against oppression and tyranny, in whatever guise it appears. The 340,000 slave-holders of this Republic constitute an Oligarchy which threatens the safety of our liberties. They are the embodiment of a despotic principle, and would, if allowed to go unchecked, deprive us even of those inalienable rights, amongst which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They would oppress me—they would oppress you and all. Going back to the days of '76, we find that even then Jefferson feared that a great contest must take place eventually between the antagonistic elements of Freedom and Slavery, and upon his dying bed gave utterance to his fearful apprehensions. Time had made this apprehension seem almost prophetic. The same Oligarchy which existed then, and which caused Jefferson to fear a great revolution, had grown into a magnitude of an appalling nature. I have seen its constantly increasing power, said Mr. Clay, and I have lifted a warning voice to my countrymen. I spoke some 2 years since at Beloit in this State, and I mentioned the greediness of the slave power. I said then that the South would not be satisfied with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, for I had heard the women of Kentucky say "we will drive your freemen from the plains of Kansas." I spoke correctly then and I reiterate it now, that we can know no peace—that we can be protected in none of our rights as long as we submit to the dictation of this Southern Aristocracy.

But Slavery is not, continued Mr. Clay, confined to the South. It exists in Ohio, in Wisconsin, in Illinois and Indiana. In itself the south is weak. It's power really lies in the bogus democracy of the North, in Northern Doughfaces, and the North must begin and effect a reformation if a reformation is to be effected. Now you are aroused, said the eloquent speaker, your blood is up, and you feel as did the ancient Greeks when stirred by the immortal eloquence of demosthenese. But your foes have the advantage. The South have got the start. There is no constitution now in Kansas. No law—no justice. Crime and giant wrong walk unmasked in all their hideous deformity. I knew this would be the case and I said so in New Hampshire. I knew this cry of "popular sovereignty" to be nothing more than a miserable pretext, gotten up by the Pro-slavery minions to deceive the people, under a show of right, while it was made the means of accomplishing an unparalleled wrong. And now that it's work is done we find it buried by its firmest advocates, while the southern oligarchy, emboldened by success, boldly emblazon upon their standards the infamous doctrine of Calhoun that the constitution carries slavery with it—that a man's right to hold a fellow-man in bondage, exists wherever floats our national flag.

Wherefore it is not merely a question of whether or no Kansas shall be surrendered to the Southern Oligarchy, but whether this man-debasing and God-defying curse of slavery shall contaminate all our vast western domains consecrated to Freedom by the God of Nature and of Truth—whether the purity of the elective franchise shall be preserved—whether Freedom of Speech and a Free Press shall be maintained, and whether the principles upon which our Government was founded shall be upheld and maintained.

Mr. Clay instituted a beautiful and able comparison between free and slave labor—gave a fund of interesting historical and statistical information throwing around facts, figures and details a fascinating charm—narrated several amusing incidents, and swayed the mighty mass at will by the magic influence of his thrilling eloquence.—He unmasked Sham Democracy—portrayed with startling effect the dangers and evils of slave-labor, and worked his way into the very hearts of his hearers.

In speaking of the condition of the 6,000,000,000 poor whites of the South, Mr. Clay's eloquence was overpowering and sublime.

Why, Indianapolis doubles her population every 6 years, while Lexington, situated in the fertile heart and centre of our State, has the same old 10,000 that she had many years ago, almost when I was a boy. Not less than 1,600,000 of the whites of Kentucky have been driven out from there in all this time by the despotism of Slavery. The poor white men came from the western Virginia mountains to make them homes in beautiful Kentucky, and the old curse followed them there. Like the army-worm, it runs to ravage every bright and green spot. We are driven out from place to place like the wandering Jew. Ever, from generation to generation, comes that eternal command, cruel as the grave, March! March! We go to the Missouri plains and it follows us there. We go to Kansas and it follows us with rapid footsteps, tracked in blood, and tells us, March! March! and so it will be till they push us into the far Pacific. There is no escape from the curse except in meeting it AND CONQUERING IT! (The applause following this magnificent apostrophe, a mere sketch of which we give, was tremendous—the vast audience responded as one mass.)

How is it intellectually? When I come here into your State and city, I notice first your beautiful and commodious school houses, where your children of rich and poor can meet on a common level, and strive equally, in free schools, for pre-eminence. Then look at old Buchanan Virginia!—my poor old grandmother! I don't like to tell her faults!—why she has more little children out of school and uneducated now than she had 10 years ago. No wonder that Gov. Wise bears sway there now, who boasted some years ago that in all his district, there was not a single infernal printing press. The free school system is put down in South Carolina—it won't do there!

How is it in the social circle? for you will say there must be some redeeming feature in the picture. Why our orators say, when they talk up here, and when they address the people of the South—those 6,000,000 of poor whites—that it won't do to elevate the negro, because it will degrade the whites! What a compliment it is to white men, that their dignity can only be sustained by keeping a servile race under them! But what do these oligarchs say to Lord Morpeth and Miss Martineau, when they come to visit them in their parlors,—those parlors, to which the "poor white trash" never come—they say, "Look at these comfortable negroes, their neat cabins, good clothing, plenty of food, &c.—they are better off than most of the 6,000,000 poor whites you see around." And I say that in a great many instances this is true! In a discussion lately with Geo. McKee, I put the case to him—"If the time should come when famine should rage, and the poor whites who are driven to the mountains and back counties should be compelled to come down and ask for food, and there was not enough in your granaries for all, to whom would you give it—to your negroes or to the white men?" "To my niggers," was his answer!

Well, but, say these bogus Democrats, you are secure in your lives, at all events. Not at all! There is no security for any of the 6,000,000 whites when their interests come in conflict with the oligarchs. Why, look at the case of Dr. Sullivan, where two young bloods, bent on a spree, and finding no partridges to hunt, started after some "poor white trash," declaring that they meant to kill somebody. They attacked a poor, peaceable laboring man, in his own house, and murdered him on his bed, in the midst of his family. Well what was the result? Were they punished? No! The aristocracy to which they belonged took it up—said they had only killed a d—d Dutchman—contested the case, and got the murderers clear, not even making them out guilty of homicide. You all remember, too, the Ward case. And how was it, my good Irish friends—whom my Buchanan friend Robert Wickliffe calls "white niggers?" when Keating was killed at Washington. Who killed him? Why, one of this same slave oligarchy! And the rest of them gathered around the murderers, and took his hand red with blood, and the whole Buchanan men thought the affair was so trifling as not to be worth inquiring about in Congress, and the Judge charged in an unheard of manner to get him clear. I say I never have heard, and never expect to hear of one of the 6,000,000 getting justice done him in a contest with the oligarchs.

This is not democracy? If there is a man here who thinks it is—if there is a friend of Buchanan who thinks it is, let him come up here, and we will argue the case. (Applause, and shouts of "Come up.")

Why, if a man in South Carolina dares to say that he thinks every man ought to be free, they shut his mouth—they bundle him out of the State, or blow his brains out. And so in Kansas. Your men have dared to say it, and the slave power there blows their brains out. You feel that, because it comes home to yourselves.

There is nothing in the Constitution of the U. S. upholding the idea that slavery was to remain. On the contrary, the desire of all was then that it should die out. Madison said that the word slavery was left out of the Constitution in order that when the thing died out the name should not be left behind. The Constitution guarantees that no person shall be deprived of life or liberty without due process of law. To be sure, Senator Pettit calls the Declaration of Independence "a self evident lie!" (Mr. Clay here pursued for a few moments a close argument to show that the Constitution could not establish slavery.)

Now, what have you done by your compromises on this question? Why, instead of the power of this oligarchy decreasing, as the fathers intended, and as it would have done if you had stood fast for the right, it has increased till you see it what it is. One State after another has been added, slave State after slave State, some by purchase—some by conquest—and still the monster has not enough. There was war on Mexico to get Texas, that she might come in as a slave State, with three more at her back—and that was not enough. You gave them the Platte country on the Missouri, and see what has come out of that very country! And yet the monster has not enough. These slaveholders, having already 340,000 more square miles than the Free States, are not yet content. They want your soil—more of it. Though a portion of your soil, as in New England, is sterile, and provides no bread for its people—though its people make the very rocks and the hill-side streams to work for them, and being crowded out, push to the north-easternmost limits of our country, and beyond it seek the cod and mackerel on the ocean, there is not food enough, and they chase the great whales around Cape Horn and away up among the ice-bound Arctic seas; there is yet not sustenance enough. But you have a Kansas to go to, secured to you by five solemn compacts, in 1820, in 1845, in 1850, and since then—solemnly guaranteed to you—as much yours as solemn title deeds can make a man's farm belong to him.

You go to Kansas, with your Bibles, your presses, your saw-mills, and your schools, to build you up homes there—and you find this Slave despotism there, with its footsteps firmly planted, and it says—"Back! you d—d Abolitionists! you have no right here!" It is infernal insolence to ask a man to bear it.

Men of Wisconsin! you have the one issue before you! On the one side is the Cincinnati platform, with Slavery for Kansas, for Nebraska, for New Mexico, nay, that Mr. Toombs may call the roll of his slaves on Bunker Hill. (Cries of "Never! never!")

On the other side is JOHN C. FREMONT—(here the whole audience burst into loud cheers, prolonged for several moments)—and you don't have to hunt out any musty records to find out where he is on this issue. We have been fishing in dark waters to find Buchanan or Fillmore, for months past, but the Slave power knows where Buchanan is—pledged to them body and soul—they sent Mr. Brown to Wheatland to find out exactly where he was.

You sent your emigrants to Kansas, and what did this oligarchy do? Disarmed them—brought cannon to bear upon them—robbed them—murdered them. I saw some of these fellows the other day. Passing through Indiana, a crowd of men from Petersburgh, Va., were on the cars, raising a row, pulling the bell strings, stopping the train, &c. I told them they had better wait till they got to Kansas. They had no baggage or furniture, only each a gun, pistol and bowie knife, and avowed that they were going "to drive out the d—d Abolitionists from Kansas."

I told them that there were about 18,000,000 of these abolitionists, who had railroads running among them, even as far as Maine—you have heard of MAINE? [Here was a perfect storm of cheers for Maine] Well! you have heard of that State. I told them that these 18,000,000 would put them under ground so quick that the grass would be green over their graves before they heard of it back in Petersburg. "Ah! but," said they, "we know what we are about—We are going to elect Buchanan, and will have the army on our side! [Here the Beaver Dam banner was hoisted among the crowd, eliciting a hearty shout of laughter.]

I see the issue is plainly before you. We must take our choice, and I think that in the Providence of God, He has raised up one from among the six million poor white men of the South to lead us to victory. I believe that justice and right will triumph. The Republican platform of 1856 is no new scheme—it is the old doctrine of our fathers—of the men of '76. Who are they that talk of dissolving the Union? Not the Republicans, certainly, for they mean to be in power. Who will do it then? Why, these men who have been prating about the sacredness of the Union so long! I don't know what John C. Fremont would say to these men, but if I were he, I would turn to little Douglas, and Fillmore, and all such trash, as Jackson did, I would shake the rope at them, and tell them, "By the Eternal! THE UNION SHALL BE PRESERVED!" [Here was another storm of cheers.]

But now, suppose Fremont elected, and these men try to dissolve the Union, and the 6,000,000 poor whites of the South are such fools as to stand by the oligarchy which insults them. Well, it will take half of them to keep the 3½ millions of slaves in order, as it did in South Carolina of old. I believe Southern men are as brave, but no braver, than Northern men—I dont believe the Southron is any braver, disagreeing there with Emerson, who must have been reading shakspeare, who says "Conscience makes cowards of us all." Well, suppose them set in battle array. You just set Ohio, with her three millions, against these other three millions, or Indiana against them, or New York, and then there are 15 states left to you to bury the dead on both sides!

But I think all this talk about dissolution is the old cry of wolf! wolf! Just as often as the oligarchy want anything, they yell, and howl—you submit—they grow fat and keep quiet till hungry, and then the old monster comes out again, and thrashes about, and switches his tail, and roars like the very devil—and your conservatives acquiesce and tell him "Take what you want!" (Yells of laughter.)

Mr. Fillmore, in his short time in Europe, spent about 50 years there of the life of the people at home. He came back, and like old Rip Van Winkle, thought to find the old sort of people here; but a new race had sprung up, which fears not the cry of disunion.

These gentlemen in Congress last session insisted that the system of free government had failed, because Massachusetts, having put a Natick cobler in the U. S. Senate, proposed to make a Yankee carpenter Speaker, and called on Quattlebum to bring out his troops and raise a fuss generally. Well, these men from around Bunker Hill told them that they meant to exercise all the rights of freemen,—and they did;—and when Banks was elected, Aiken of South Carolina, one of the largest slaveholders in the Union, asked to be allowed to lead him to the chair. I tell you, that if you don't get scared, they WILL, and acquiesce, as they ought to.

Whatever others may do, I tell you that, so help me God, I will look neither to the right nor the left, but go straight forward for what I believe is right and just. I say, take your slave institutions if you will;—live with them if you can—die with them, as you must—but you shall never occupy with them another inch of free territory. That is the whole matter. If the voice from these six millions of oppressed men cannot reach your hearts, you are slaves already. You have numbers, but it is not numbers, it is the spirit only that can make you free. To what sentiment of honor and patriotism have I not appealed—what aspirations and hopes of our fathers—what cry from martyred brothers? All is concentrated in this issue—upon this election! I implore you to AWAKE and exercise your God-given rights! I wish my voice could reach every house and hamlet in the North, every home in Wisconsin. I would implore, pray you to stand fast on this issue of LIBERTY or SLAVERY, and my last aspiration and declaration shall be, while I have breath for utterance—OH! GOD! MY COUNTRY SHALL BE FREE.

Our sketch does no justice, we are aware, to the magnificence of this peroration. It stirred the very heart's blood of the assembled thousands, and deafening cheers rent the air for several minutes. Mr. HOLTON, the President, then with his clarion voice, reaching to the outermost of the crowd, in a few eloquent remarks, proposed the formal thanks of the Convention to Mr. Clay for his address, and the response was emphatic enough. Cheers were given for FREMONT and DAYTON, and cheers for Mr. HOLTON himself; and after the announcement of the evening speeches, &c., the meeting adjourned, and the human tide poured down town, gilding the streets as they went.

THE EVENING MEETINGS.

There was an immense crowd in and about the Fremont Camp House, in the evening. Standing closely as they stood last night, there were no less than 3,500 people inside, and the crowd was still so great outside, that another meeting was organized, and speaking going on from both at the same time.

Inside, Mr. CLAY addressed the audience, and was received with tremendous enthusiasm.—Hon. DAVID NOGGLE made one of his telling speeches, to the satisfaction of the audience, as they testified by their applause, and THURLOW W. BROWN roused them till the old Camp House shook with the noise they made.

Outside, SIDNEY L. BEAN, Esq., WM. H. LORD, and GEO. GODFREY, did good service in the good cause.

The German meeting at the Market Hall was also crowded full, and eloquent addresses followed each other. A few rowdies, who seem to be beset with Robert Wickliffe's idea that the Germans are "white niggers," and have no right to meet and talk about Freedom, were constantly interrupting the Speakers, and attempting to draw off the attention of the crowd, but to no purpose except to exhibit their own folly.

The speakers at this meeting were Dr. HILLGAERTNER of Dubuque, H. GOLL of Madison, and Mr. SCHWARTZ of Jefferson, the last the liberator of Godfrey Kinkel. The addresses were well received, and elicited great applause among the people. The German heart beats for freedom here as in the fatherland.

CASSIUS M. CLAY was present, and was introduced by Mr. HOLTON to the audience.

THE TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.

The Young Men's Fremont Club had provided about 2000 torches, and after the meeting at the Camp House adjourned, the vast crowd adjourned to the Kansas Aid rooms, where the torches were handed out, and the procession started. The sight was a magnificent one indeed, as the long line passed through the various streets of the city, lighting them like daylight, the bearers cheering lustily themselves, and cheered as heartily in return. These sounds accompanied the procession throughout its march. This closed the doings of the day—a day long to be remembered in Milwaukee.

The procession, as it passed down East Water street on its return, went in a zigzag course, the lights blazing beautifully, but still filled the street from Spring st. bridge to Walker's Pt. bridge, about a mile in length.

Of course the Buchaniers could not be quiet, and let peaceable men have their own celebration in their own way, and a crowd of them gathered about the procession to interfere with it, and some of them got roughly handled by the police for their pains, and one or two, for throwing stones at the torch bearers, spent the night in the cells at the station house. Served them right.

On the way up East Water street, beyond the Market House, the Buchaneers attacked part of the procession, and wrested their torches from them, but a few of the Fremonters turned back, and made such havoc among them as kept them quiet for a while. A policeman here was called upon, but refused to interfere.

Interesting Letter from Kansas—Freemen Starving there—An Appeal for Help.

LAWRENCE, Sept. 13, 1856.

DEAR FRIENDS:—With a dull head and a weary heart I sit down to fulfil my promise of writing to you. My circumstances are such that a regular correspondence is impossible; even now my materials are unfit. I have been deprived of my rest for some time, and this, with scant food and of a poor quality, I am almost sick. Yesterday I worked hard on the fort now being built here, and last night marched ten miles after 10 o'clock, to rout a camp of Ruffians at Franklin. They were, however, as on all such occasions, on the retreat before we reached them. We are just now indulging the hope that that the troubles are nearly over, and that we shall soon return home (Plymouth City) to make provisions for the winter. Our prospects for the next six months are dreary, having been called from our work at a time when it was highly important we should remain. We are now without house for shelter or provisions to live on, and a cold winter upon us. We know our friends, hence we say no more on this point. We have used up the little provisions we brought with us, and now we must get along as we can till we hear from you. The fact is the people have been deprived of raising anything of any account for food, and of course there is no opportunity to earn wages or food by our labor at present. We are, however, not reduced as low as we may be should the troubles continue. Should this war continue another year, it would require years to efface the effect of it.

It will not only hinder the rapid settlement of the country, but will demoralize those already here. All business being paralyzed, habits of idleness are engendered. Life and property do not receive that respect which in peaceable times is held sacred by good citizens. Of course we all bear arms with the intention of using them if necessary, and this will result in habits characterizing savages alone. Again, the spirit of revenge will remain in the hearts of many against the instigators of the trouble; murders, robberies and the like will not cease with the war.

Sept. 18th.—My letter was interrupted by a call for our men to go to Hickory Point, and a portion of us were detailed for that purpose. Since that time we have had a taste of the realities of war. On Sunday a message arrived from Franklin stating that 2,000 ruffians were at that place pillaging and burning the houses, driving off the cattle, and murdering the inhabitants. The news fell like a thunderbolt. Nearly all our men were away, and should the ruffians find it out, an attack would be certain. About seven o'clock our fears were realized, for a large party of cavalry appeared in sight, and marched up within half a mile of the town. The women and children were hurried off to a place of safety, and we took our places in the fort to await the attack. They, however, halted, retreated a short distance, and again approached through a ravine on the east side of the town, when about 60 of us started out to meet them. We posted ourselves on a small eminence, and waited for them to make the attack. Finding, however, that they were not disposed to do so, we resolved to attack them. When they saw our intention, they turned their horses' heads in another direction, but not soon enough to escape a few of Sharp's expresses. They left seven of their number dead, while not a man of our party was injured.

At Franklin the ruffians insulted Geary to his face, for they burned houses before his eyes, and drove off over 100 head of cattle belonging to the settlers. The next day they appeared in sight, but the U. S. troops kept them from making an attack. They, however, shot Mr. Buffum, a cripple, through the heart, simply because he would not consent to their taking his horses from him. Gov. Geary is now having an opportunity to see who is the aggressive party. Our men at Hickory Point were taken prisoners by the U. S. troops. Mr. Nichols* was one of the party. they are now confined at Lecompton.—Had the ruffians had the courage to attack us on Sunday, they would with this force have taken the city and force to it; then they would not have left one stone upon another. Our provisions are exhausted and actual starvation looks us in the face. For three days the quarter-master has turned us empty away, and "God only knows" says he "when we shall have a supply." Clothing cannot be had. Our merchants have been robbed at Kansas City, and their goods taken to clothe Buford's men. If there is money at the East let it be sent soon, or suffering, such as has never been known, even in Kansas, awaits us.—Our mills have been burned, crops destroyed, and money is getting very "short."

Shall we be left to the tender mercies of Missouri? I would give anything I possess for a good meal of victuals. As it is I only dream of it in my sleep. But more at some other time.—Excuse my greasy paper and poor pencil, and believe me yours still for Free Kansas.

JOEL W. WELLS.

*An emigrant from this place, whose wife, still here, says "if he had only been taken prisoner by the ruffians she could bear it, but to have him imprisoned by the soldiers of his own country, for the liberty of which his father and grandfather fought and bled, is too hard a thought to endure."

DEATH OF HON. JOHN B. MACY.—It is with great reluctance that we are compelled to believe that the above is an appropriate heading to this article.

And inasmuch as it is so, we cannot suffer so afflictive an event to pass without more notice of it than we have yet had time to bestow.

In the death of John B. Macy, an interesting family have lost an affectionate and revered husband and father. The community have lost an enterprising citizen, our city one who is largely interested in real estate in the city and county, and one who used his possessions in such a manner as to build up our city, as liberally, in proportion to his means, as any landholder we have.

His has been, we learn, rather an eventful life, though we are not posted in regard to particulars. He has been in public life some, and mingled more with public men, and been engaged in many works of improvement. For four years since he was elected to represent this District in Congress. He was very energetic in starting the construction of the R. R. V. R. R. and to his management and determination we are no doubt indebted for so much of that road as is now in operation upon this end of the line.

But he has passed forever from our midst not in the usual manner that men go to their last resting place, but swept away violently, by one of those catastrophes that appal and alarm the stoutest hearts, and shock communities even where no immediate inhabitant is swept down. But when it invades, as it were, our own dwellings and raise a tempest of sorrow upon us, we feel the storm in a more appalling degree. We know well of whom we write; that he had his opponents as well as his warm friends, and whatever errors or failures he possessed, there are none so false to true manhood as to deny him a green spot in the memory of the people of Fond du Lac.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

More of the "bargain and sale" of democratic voters.

The indications of an arrangement between the Fillmore and Buchanan Slavery extensionists multiply on every hand. A Washington correspondent of ours reports, in a letter which will be found in another part of this paper, that the proposed combination will be consummated in the event of the defeat of the Buchaneers at the approaching State Election in Pennsylvania. Private advices from that State, however, inform us that the same Buchaneers have already concocted some scheme not yet publicly developed, securing the vote of the State in favor of Border-Ruffianism, and that their despair of the last few days has suddenly been changed to exultation. From New-Jersey we also hear that Mr. Buchanan's recent visit to that State has resulted in an agreement to give the vote of the Buchanan men there to Fillmore in consideration of an equivalent in Pennsylvania. In this city we know that a meeting of the two factions has just taken place, with a view to a combination on the basis of giving to Fillmore the Democratic vote of New York, in return for which the Fillmore men of Pennsylvania are to be handed over to Buchanan. At the same time, we are assured that preparations have been made to repeat in Pennsylvania the notorious Plaquemines frauds by which the vote of Louisiana was secured to Mr. Polk. The prolonged presence in this region of Mr. Senator Slidell, who is believed to have had so considerable a share in those nefarious transactions, is naturally regarded as having something to do with this part of the new Border Ruffian strategy, without which it is felt Buchanan's election is impossible.—N. Y. Tribune.

DECLINED.—We are requested by Mr. BISHOP, who was nominated for Congress by the so-called "American" Convention, which met here on the 24th ult., to say that he declines—won't run, in fact. Doubtless he heard Mr. CLAY'S speech yesterday—in fact we never heard of his having given them any leave to use his name. At all events, he declines.

TO INVALIDS.
EXTENSION OF STAY!
DR. CALVIN M. FITCH,

AUTHOR of the Invalids Guide and Consumptive's Manual, &c., has arranged to remain in Chicago until SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 29th, and will have with him assistance sufficient to enable him, in most instances, to attend to patients from a distance on the day of their arrival.

The treatment of Consumption, Asthma, Chronic Bronchitis, &c., by the combination of Medicinal Inhalation with the necessary internal remedies and general measures, is plainly the most rational, and as demonstrated in Dr Fitch's practice, by far the most successful plan yet adopted of treating these dangerous affections.

"Hints to Invalids," a pamphlet explaining Dr. Fitch's treatment of Diseases of the Heart and Chest, also Dyspepsia, Chronic Gastritis and Female Diseases, so often complicated with or predisposing to Consumption, may be had without charge, on application to Dr. Fitch, either personally or by letter.

No business connection longer existing between himself and former associate, Dr. S. S. Fitch. Dr. C. M. Fitch has, in connection with his present associate, Dr. J. W. Sykes, opened a permanent office at No. 459 Main-st., Buffalo, N. Y., where one or the other will always be found, and where, after the present appointment, all communications will be addressed.

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye.

NO BURNING BLISTERING COMPOUND could ever have attained the universal favor accorded to this Dye, the original, never-failing favorite. Nature is not more true to herself than the brown or black produced in the reddest, grayest or most frowzy hair by it.

Made and sold, or applied at BATCHELOR'S Wig Factory, (in nine private rooms) 233 Broadway, New York. WM. A. BATCHELOR is on the box of all genuine, others are imitations.

The genuine is sold in Milwaukee by GREEN & BUTTON, H. BOSWORTH & SON, and RICE & STEVENSON.

TO MARRIED LADIES

This medicine is especially suited, as it is an immediate and unfailing cure for many of the diseases incident to them. They should, however, observe the following

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, as they are sure to bring on miscarriage; but at every other time and in every other case, they are perfectly safe.

Price, one dollar a box; on the receipt of this sum, a box will be sent by mail, free of postage. Direct to Dr. J. L. CHEESEMAN, New York City.

Fever and Ague.

ARE YOU SUFFERING FROM THIS DISTRESSING malady? Use DR. SHALLENBERGER'S PILLS, and be cured at once. If you doubt, go to the Agent and get a pamphlet, in which you will find testimony in abundance, and from a class of persons who never permit their names to be used in connection with second rate medicines.

Ask for Dr. Schallenberger's Fever and Ague Antidote, and see that you get Pills; a dose of every two days is all you will need, and in no case will the second chill occur after commencing the medicine.

Dalley's Medical Pain Extractor.

THERE never has been a discovery made in the Materia Medica, whereby pain can be so quickly allayed, and where parts in a high state of inflammation can be so rapidly reduced to their natural state, nor where wounds and sores can be so rapidly and thoroughly healed, and decayed parts restored without scar or defect, than with DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.

In cuts, wounds, sprains and bruises—casualties to which children are so constantly subject—the action of the genuine DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR, is ever the same! How much pain and suffering may not thus be prevented! Moreover, life itself is often dependent upon having on hand the genuine DALLEY EXTRACTOR, and for particulars of which I respectfully refer to my printed pamphlets, for the truth of which I hold myself responsible.

No cases of burns or scalds, no matter how severe, has ever yet, in any one instance, resisted the all-powerful, pain-subduing and healing qualities of the DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR.

No PAIN EXTRACTOR is genuine unless the box has upon it a Steel Plate Engraved Label with the signature of C. V. CLICKENER & CO., proprietors, and HENRY DALLEY, manufacturer. Price 25 cents per box.

☞ All should be addressed to C. V. Clickener & Co., 74 Barclay and 222 Greenwich street, New York.

Sold by all Druggists and Medicine Dealers throughout the United States. jy16d113d&w3m

CITY AUCTION ROOM

AUCTION SALE of valuable business property in the 5th Ward on Saturday morning, the 11th day of October next, at 10 o'clock A. M. I will sell on the premises the following described property in lots 20 feet front, and 140 feet deep, being lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and part of lot 5 in block 4, or its better known as the lots occupied by the Menomonee Locomotive Works. This property should have been laid off into business lots long before this, but it could not be obtained. The purchaser of these lots has been induced, from the demand, to give to all an opportunity to purchase the said property, or the purpose it always was intended. These lots are on Reed street. If any one will take the trouble to go along Reed street, they will find as handsome and as large brick stores building as there are on East Water st. This Reed street is bound to be and must be the business street of the 5th Ward. The Menomonee Bridge crosses immediately at the commencement of it, most all of the Rail road Depots centre immediately opposite. The Menomonee river which is opposite, will and must be the principal river for all business purposes. Much more might be written as to said above valuable property, but if all would go and look and examine the situation and location of all business around it, you can come to no other conclusion than that this is the spot for business in the Fifth Ward, and to my judgment [illegible] the Fifth Ward is, will and must be one of the principal and the most important Wards in the city of Milwaukee.

The terms of this sale are very easy. 10 per cent down on the day of sale, 20 per cent in sixty days, 20 per cent in one year, 25 per cent in two years, 25 per cent in three years at 7 per cent interest.

GREAT and extensive sale of all the Machinery, Engines, Tools, Patterns, Irons, Moulds and every thing of every character whatever, which are now in use in the Menomonee Locomotive Foundry, in the 5th Ward, I will commence to sell the same on the 8th day of October next, and will continue sale from day to day, until all and every article is sold. The said Company having now been dissolved. The amount of machinery, tools, &c. &c., cost upward of twenty thousand dollars, but it will be sold for whatever it will bring. All who are engaged in such establishments had best be on hand.

City Auction Room.

KILBOURN CITY is to be the great Emporium of the western part of Wisconsin. This great city was laid out some twelve months since, being located at the point, on the Wisconsin River, where the LaCrosse & Milwaukee Railroad enters this great and beautiful River Wisconsin, is capable of furnishing the greatest water power of any river in the United States. There is a dam about being constructed which will be completed summer 1857.

The manufacturing of Lumber of which over one hundred millions of feet are annually manufactured on the Wisconsin River will furnish no little use for the greatest portion of this great water power.

The Wisconsin River abounds with pine forest which is more extensive than any other river in the West.

The site of Kilbourn City is magnificent being a plain rising from a bluff elevation of 30 feet at the river bank, to an elevation of some 200 to 250 feet, where it meets the table land two miles east of the river. The whole is oak openings, and the land lays beautifully.

The best of forest and soft water can be had by digging or boring. Kilbourn City was laid out, and buildings commenced in Sept last, since which time some 15 or 20 buildings have been enclosed at a cost of from $1 500 to $3 000 each, and great numbers of others are in progress of construction.

In fact it would require two columns of one of our daily papers to give an account of the advantages of Kilbourn City. One word is sufficient, and that is this. There has been no city laid out in many years which has offered so many inducements and advantages and where capitalists can invest their money so certainly as in Kilbourn City.

Kilbourn City is in Columbia County, State of Wisconsin. You take the cars from Milwaukee to Beaver Dam where you will find conveyances to Kilbourn City. Maps of said city are ready, and can be obtained by calling at my office.

The terms upon which the property is to be sold, are such as to give all a chance of bettering their condition and affording the opportunity to all to become interested in a city which will and must be one of great importance.

It is impossible to give a full and fair description of Kilbourn City, but one fact is worth knowing, all who go there have a great chance of becoming independent on a very little capital. The terms of Sale are ¼ cash, balance 1, 2, 3 years with 7 per cent interest, payable annually.

For the purpose of encouraging any who intend to build a House in said city, the value of the house to be not less than [illegible] hundred dollars, and the second payment will be given as a bonus for such improvement. Therefore such persons or person would have no payment to make for two years after the first payment.

The sale will take place in October 14, 15, 16 and 17, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning of each day. Five per cent cash will be required of the bidder which will be deducted from the first payment when the deed is given.

The Senate then went into Committee of the Whole on the Land Grant R R bill and after having spent some time in committee rose and adjourned till 3 P M.

Bills Passed.—To amend charter of Racine, bill in regard to suits in chancery. Bill establishing practice in police court, city of Watertown.

After passing several other unimportant bills, House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr Walker in the Chair. After going through general file, committee rose, reported, and adjourned.

SENATE, 3 P M.—Senate went into Committee of the Whole on R. R. Grant bill, and spent whole afternoon in committee. Adjourned until 7 this evening with bill still in committee.

7½ P. M.—Senate met and went into committee on R R bill. Motion that committee rise and report. Carried.

Bill now under consideration in Senate Committee of Whole reported La Crosse bill as an amendment to second chapter of bill. Senator Taylor now speaking against substitute.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct 2

The reception of President Pierce will prove an imposing and brilliant affair. His political and personal friends, since the vote of the citizens refusing a public ovation, have been active, and the result is a fair degree of success in numbers and enthusiasm. Many buildings on Main and State streets are decorated and numerous flags are floating. The principal decorative feature is an arch trimmed with evergreens, bearing on one side the motto, "New Hampshire welcomes home her favorite son," and on the reverse, "We welcome home the President of the United States."

NEW YORK Oct 3

The steamer Tennessee, from San Juan the 22d and Key West 27th, arrived this morning.

The officers of the Tennessee report affairs in Nicaragua to be assuming a more favorable aspect as regards the stability of Walker's government. The army numbers 1,?00 American besides the native troops, all in good health. A detachment of Walker's troops had made two attempts to dislodge a party of natives entrenched at San Jacinto and were repulsed both times with a loss of 20 killed and wounded. The enemy are said to have had one hundred killed at last accounts. Walker was about to dispatch a body of artillerists to make a third attack.

Ex-President Rivas is said to be defunct and unacknowledged by any party.

Leon is still in the possession of the natives. Honduras and Salvador troops are all in a deplorable condition from sickness and starvation, their army continually thinned by desertion and cholera. Walker has cut off all means of supply.

The fate of Dr Livingston is not certainly known, but it is believed that he has not been executed.

The cholera still rages at Costa Rica. President Mora recently reviewed his troops at San Jose, but on asking them if they were ready to go to Nicaragua and drive out the Americans, they answered enthusiastically "No," but that if the Americans attempted to invade Costa Rica, they were ready to oppose them.

The British fleet still lay at San Juan, and additions are expected daily.

CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD!

THE BEST ALTERATIVE KNOWN!

NOT A PARTICLE OF MERCURY IN IT!

An infallible remedy for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Ague and Fever, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and pain of the Bones and Joints, Salt Rheum, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, and all diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This great alterative Medicine and Purifier of the Blood is now used by thousands of grateful patients from all parts of the United States, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, "CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE." Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Eruptions on the Skin, Liver Disease, Fevers, Ulcers, Old Sores, Affection of the Kidneys, Diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are speedily put to flight by using this inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the Skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution, enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the diseases of females it is peculiarly applicable, and wherever it has become known is regularly prescribed with the happiest effects. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts elasticity to the worn out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient fresh and healthy. A single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so called Sarsaparillas in existence.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The Press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Call on the Agent and get an Almanac, and read the details of astonishing cures performed by CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, (IN MOST CASES WHERE EVERY THING ELSE HAD SIGNALLY FAILED.) The limits of an advertisement will not admit their full insertion.

PERFECT PROTECTION FROM THE ELEMENTS.

WEST'S

Patent Galvanic Cement for Roofing.

THE ATTENTION of Architects, Builders, and the public generally is invited to this roofing—as being far superior to other compositions in use for like purposes. In fact, we think it superior to any other Roofing, for it has more essential qualities combined required for roofing, than any other material used, viz: Imperviousness to water, incombustibility, durability and cheapness. It is Fire and Water proof, and can be applied to flat or steep roofs. In its texture and appearance it resembles slate—will not soften and run in the warmest weather, nor become hard and crack in the coldest.—Therefore it forms a good walk on piazza's, flat roofs, car tops, steamboat decks, &c. Its fireproof qualities particularly adapts it to Railroad buildings, engine shops, &c. It is especially adapted to repairing old roofs, seaming, around battlements, sky-lights and chimneys, and for lining eave troughs, &c.

This roofing is being extensively used in the Eastern States on the most expensive buildings. Testimonials may be seen from the owners of buildings, Builders and Architects, and also specimens by calling at the office.

The subscribers own the right for the State of Wisconsin, and will sell territory by counties or towns, on favorable terms.

For further information apply at the office of the subscribers, Architectural room of Mygatt & Schmidtner, corner West Water and Spring streets, or to J. Y. Cheney, one of the proprietors, No 4 Market Square.

SEXTON, BROTHER & CO.,

IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS OF

STAPLE AND FANCY

DRY GOODS,

—AND—

CLOTHING!

143 & 145

EAST WATER STREET,

Marble Block, one door South of their old Stand.

SPRING GOODS,

Together with an enormous stock of DOMESTICS, purchased in the Fall at very low figures, with a view of being prepared for the EARLY SPRING TRADE, without being subjected to the exorbitant rates of Rail Road charges on such goods as are sold at a fraction above Eastern cost, we are prepared to show, and will be most happy to sell the

MOST COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE STOCK OF

DRY GOODS,

Ever before offered in the West!

Being connected with several large manufacturing establishments and importing houses at the East, giving us an advantage over any other Mercantile House in the State, and having long resided and done business in this city, and our established principles of doing business being well known to every city and country customer, to be of the most liberal nature, we flatter ourselves that we can say with safety that we consider competition quite out of the question.

We would say to

who design going East to purchase, that we would esteem it a favor if they would honor us with a call before leaving for New York and Boston, as we feel quite confident that we can convince them that it is to their interest to purchase in Milwaukee.

DR. C. M. JACKSON, Phila'da, Pa.,

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.

Such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

The proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and Individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.
